

Light in various perspectives
By Amity S.G.W.N

- That thing which stands out against the dark.
- The stars shining and guiding lost explorers.
- A glimmer of hope.
- The sun, which casts it all over the world.
- Life, which eventually leaves someone.
- Magic being made to make something or change something else.Lumos.
- Warmth that comes along with spring or summer.
- Joy, usually seen in the eyes of someone or in their mood.
- The thing that helps focus on something well when everything else is a distraction.
- A searching device seeking out the unknown.
- Accomplishments or ideas
